Holiday 1 - Sail out, Fly back...

Day	Ports of Call	Arrive	Depart	Description
Sunday 8th April	Southampton - UK		4:00pm	We set off on our Historic and memorable voyage commemorating 100 years since the tragic sinking of RMS Titanic. We will follow the Titanics route passing Cherbourg where she picked up passengers on her maiden voyage across the Atlantic destined for New York.
Monday 9th April	Cobh - Ireland	2:30pm	11:30pm	RMS Titanics last port of call; here we can follow the Titanic Trail around the streets and vicinity of Cobh, revealing locations and incidents directly connected to the Titanic, it's a fascinating heritage tour exploring the town. There will be other interesting excursions on offer for those of you who want to travel further a field from Cobh.
Tuesday 10th Wednesday 11th Thursday 12th Friday 13th April	Cruising			Heading across the Atlantic, a quartet of sea days allows time to relax and make the most of the ships facilities, enjoy a workout in the gym, pamper yourself in the spa or join in the various activities, talks and demonstrations relating to the Titanic's history. Theme days at sea.
Saturday 14th April	Titanic Site (41°43'57"N, 49°56'49"W)	7:00pm		Today our lectures will be based around life on board the Titanic 100 years ago as we approach the site of the Titanics resting place.
Sunday 15th April	Titanic Site (41°43'57"N, 49°56'49"W)		4:00am	We will hold a memorial service at 2:20am to commemorate the 100th year anniversary and to pay tribute to all the brave passengers and crew on board that fateful night.
Monday 16th April	Cruising			Today will be a day of reflection for some or a day to move on for others no doubt it is likely to be an emotional day on board.
Tuesday 17th April	Halifax - Canada	7:00am		For the next two days we will be in Halifax which has one of the most moving and intimate connections with the Titanic disaster, playing a key role during the tragedy's aftermath and becoming the final resting place of many of her unclaimed victims. There is plenty to see and do in Halifax; you will have the opportunity of visiting Fairview Lawn Cemetery where victims of the RMS Titanic sinking are interred. There will be other interesting excursions on offer for those of you who want to travel further a field from Halifax.
Wednesday 18th April	Halifax - Canada		8:00pm
Thursday 19th April	Cruising			This final day at sea gives us chance to socialise with new friends and acquaintances and to enjoy the ships facilities for last time.
Friday 20th Saturday 21st April	New York - USA London	7:00am		Our Historic voyage brings us to our final port of New York the Titanic's intended destination. Here you can choose to stay a few days and admire the glitz, glamour and bright lights of the big Apple or return home after this epic adventure that will leave you with no shortage of experiences and memories to talk about.

Our Ship

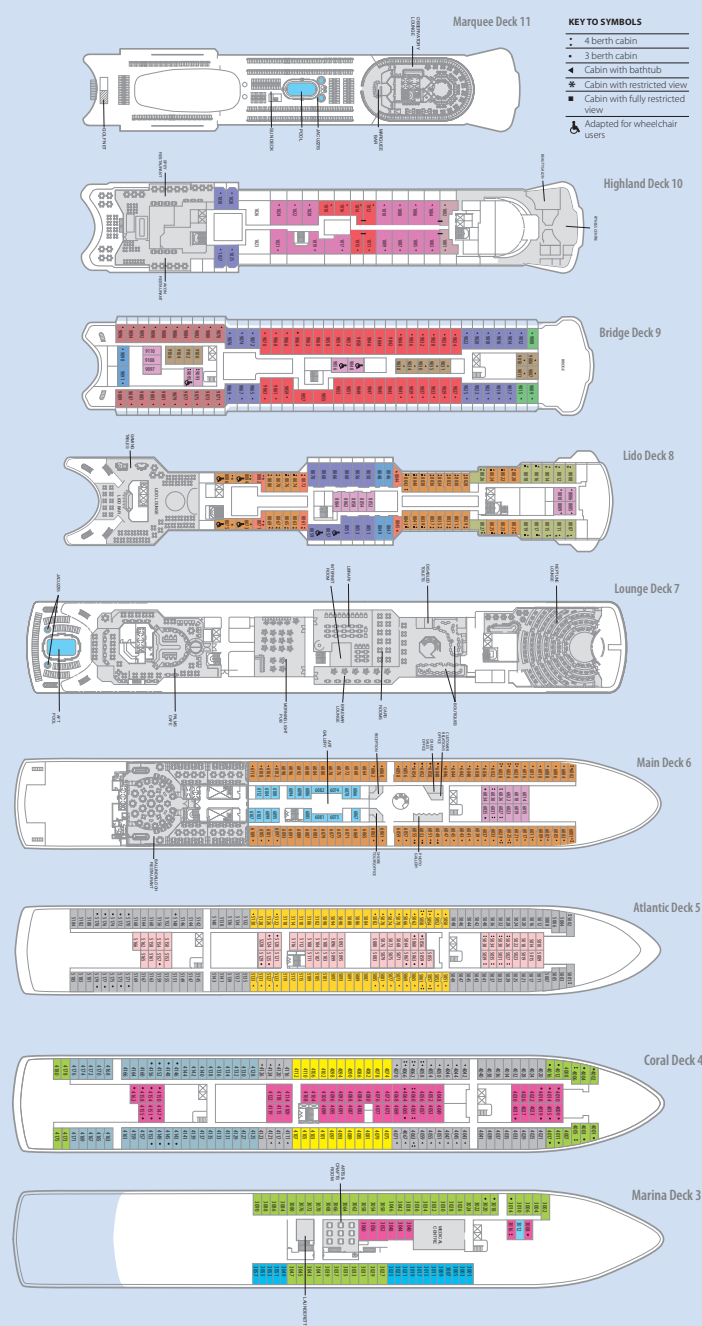

To take us on this epic journey we have secured Fred. Olsen's cruise Liner Balmoral; Fred. Olsen's current involvement with Harland and Wolff, where the Titanic was constructed made them the obvious choice linking past and present.

The Balmoral is newly extended and refurbished and offers that intimate, homely atmosphere which is so much Fred. Olsen's trademark. Balmoral has elegant comfortable cabins, world class cuisine and diverse on board activities.

For further details on the Balmoral go to our website www.titanicmemorialcruise.co.uk where you will find virtual tours of all areas of the ship.
